Review of Symposium Framework & Objectives

- Develop a network to foster continuing dialogue between the BCRSP and academic institutions through the sharing of ideas, concerns, and solutions to challenges facing students in OHS programs.
- Explore the BCRSP Examination Blueprints to enhance content awareness and understanding.
- Find commonalities by identifying core subject matter essential to the development of sound OHS practices and principles.
- Explore new trends and opportunities to address a changing global marketplace and the integration of OHS programs.
- Recognize the need to modify existing methods of professional development to meet the changing profile of the Canadian work force.

- In 1976, BCRSP was incorporated as a federal, not-for-profit organization
- Board of Governors consists of certificants and a public member
- Administers the CRSP® and CRST® Certifications

Third Party Accreditation/Certifications

- CRSP® and CRST® certifications accredited to ISO 17024 (Certification of Persons)
- Certified to ISO 9001 (Quality Management Systems)
